

FOR A FREE PRESS AND FREE SPEECH

Gompers Says This Is Question
Which Highest Court Must Soon Decide.

NOT CERTAIN ABOUT
SERVING TERM IN JAIL

Points Out Three Ways by Which Famous Case May Be Carried Up.

TORONTO, Nov. 12.—"Either we have the right of free speech and free press or we have not, and we want the court to say so. Whether we will go to jail, I do not know," said Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, thus expressing himself today in telling the Federation convention the status of the contempt proceedings under which he, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison have been sentenced to terms in jail.

Mr. Gompers said there were three ways in which the case could reach the supreme court of the United States—by writ of error; by writ of certiorari, or by writ of habeas corpus, after the defendants had been placed in jail.

Faith in His Cause.
"I have abiding faith in the justice of our cause," Mr. Gompers continued, "and I can only express the hope that the higher court of our land will immortalize themselves by the reiteration of the magna charta and the constitution of the United States."

An appeal for moral and financial support from the striking garment workers in St. Louis was read and deferred; several resolutions were presented, and the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

Brewery Workers Kick.
The International Brewery Workers' union presented a resolution advising an amendment to the constitution to provide that neither the executive council nor officers of the Federation be permitted to interfere with the internal affairs of an international organization, and never should use state or central bodies to take sides in matters which were to be adjusted by the international unions themselves.

The Central Labor union of the District of Columbia suggests the influence of the Federation be used to change the date of inaugurating the president to the United States to a more suitable time than March 4.

CHEAP NOVELS CAUSE OF YOUTH'S DOWNFALL.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 12.—The condition of John K. Woodward, president of the Merchants' National bank of New Albany, and Tucker, the negro chauffeur, who were wounded yesterday by Thomas Jefferson Hall, the boy bandit, was yesterday unchanged. President Woodward is in a serious condition. The negro is not expected to live.

Hall, who will have to answer later for the murder of Cashier J. Hanbury Fawcett, takes his arrest coolly. His stepmother, who visited him early today, was asked what sort of novels the boy read.

"Oh, I don't know their names," was the reply, "but he always kept three or four new ones in the house."

The boy's father says the lad is not insane. "He is just mean."

Henry Alexander, the janitor of the bank, was arrested last night on the charge of complicity in the robbery.
